Professional Development

5 Dimensions Of Teaching and Learning

The University of Washington's Center for Educational Leadership (CEL) teacher evaluation system provides research-based methods and instruments to:

- Plan and implement a growth-oriented teacher evaluation system focused on high-quality learning.
- Develop a common language and shared vision for improving teaching and learning using an instructional framework.
- Analyze and calibrate evaluation ratings across classrooms, schools and districts using an evaluation rubric.
- Increase the expertise of school leaders to guide and support the professional growth of teachers.

WestEd

- Teachers receive tools and learn strategies to effectively meet the early mathematical needs of students and families
- Learn enhanced family engagement activities that help parents focus on their child's mathematical development
- Receive a hands-on approach to learning effective early math instruction through active participation

Edgenuity Webinars & Training

- MyPath math and ELA intervention is designed to personalize learning in reading and math for every student by using assessment data to pinpoint learning gaps, then prioritizes and adapts lessons to provide students with the precise instruction they need to stay on track or get back to grade level as quickly as possible.

Circle Ways: Restorative Justice (MS & HS)

- a holistic approach to school culture and student discipline that helps develop the social-emotional intelligence and empathy of all members of the community.
