Hispanic Heritage Month

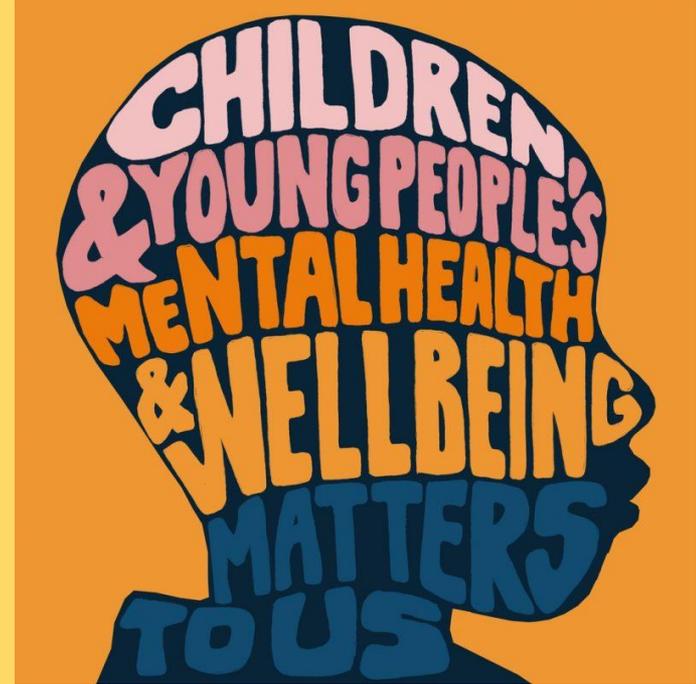

- For Hispanic Heritage Month, we have been uploading everyday a different Hispanic figure and a little bit of information on who they are and what they've done. We started uploading on September 15 and will continue until October 15, so we will be uploading someone different every day of Hispanic heritage Month
- If you would like to check out our post, please visit our instagram @lalahs_official
- During Leadership, all the students decided to do powerpoints on food, music/art, and movies so then we can present them during advisory to educate the students on the diversity in the Hispanic community.

Suicide Prevention (PESA)

Last week starting on Monday 9/14 through Thursday 9/17, each day during advisory, we had discussion talking about Suicide Prevention. Grade levels had PESA join us and give a great presentation on the subject itself.

Two weeks ago on Thursday 9/10, we spread awareness on suicide prevention on our instagram page mentioning facts, warning signs and as well as resources on how to prevent someone from committing suicide and also putting a lifeline for anyone that may need it.

SafeBAE

SafeBAE is an organization founded by teenage survivors of sexual assault and harassment. They have a 15-step program that educates other teenagers and adults to become peer educators. This 15-step program teaches about the myths of sexual harassment, what to do to help as a bystander or a friend/partner, as well as our rights under Title IX and how to submit a report and what that entails. A fifth of our Leadership class have volunteered to become a peer educator and one is already on the final step towards completion.

School Assistance

During online school some of our teachers have been receiving help from USC Interns Ashley Yim and Layton Sheppard our students are very appreciative for their help.

Our guidance counselor, Jeffery Chipix, has a class called 'Peer Leaders' where he helps students on filling out college applications, browse on which colleges we have in mind, as well as building up our leadership qualities. In addition Chipix has some assistance from USC intern Valeria Alatorre.
